...Values

- + We place the creation of value for the learner at the center of all that we do
- + We embrace the change necessary to continually improve our standards and processes to create "best in class" educational content and learning assessments

■ Community Inclusiveness

- + We act with integrity and behave ethically and transparently
- + We value diversity among our Board, administrators, students, faculty and all other constituents and stakeholders
- + challenge and innovation

■ Universal Connectivity of Scholars

- + We keep our students, faculty, staff, communities, and other constituents fully informed and engaged in a free exchange of ideas in an atmosphere of trust and mutual respect
- + We seek to identify the special service needs of our students and work diligently to meet or exceed them

■ ■ ■ Guiding Principles

Evolving from the mission, vision, and values are four guiding principles that embody these statements.

Those principles are included within the diamond symbol utilized by American Sentinel.

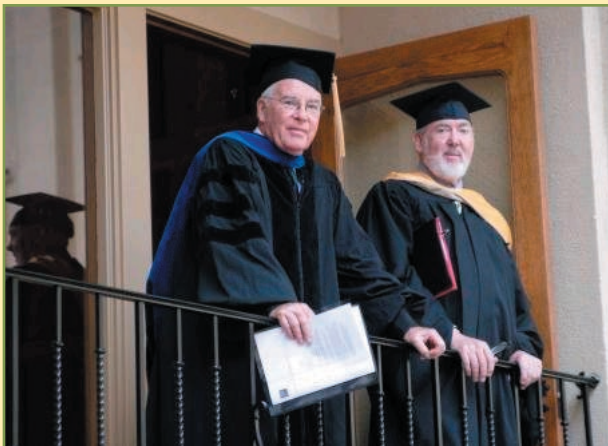

The principles are:

- Leadership
- Scholarship
- Accountability
- Citizenship

The statement of mission is at the center of all that the University does. All new educational programs, faculty hires, student recruiting programs, and student services are mission-driven.

The University takes every opportunity to inculcate the mission statement, goals, and values in what is communicated, rewarded, and enshrined.
