Win an iPad 2 for Your Thoughts!

In honor of Constitution Day, students are invited to submit a 400-word essay or two-minute video addressing the topic, “How have the U.S. Constitutional freedoms you enjoy enhanced your personal, professional or civic life?” The winner will receive an iPad2 engraved with his or her name. The runner-up will receive an iPod Nano.

Written submissions must be formatted in Microsoft Word, double-spaced, with a title, your full name, degree program, phone number and email address. Videos must include a title screen that includes the aforementioned information. Email your submissions to constitution@americansentinel.edu by Thurs., Sept. 8 at 6 p.m. Mountain Standard Time.

For more information about the contest or for the scoring rubric, email Vice President, Academic Affairs David Marshall, Ph.D., at dave.marshall@americansentinel.edu.

American Sentinel University Takes Part in Colorado Aids Walk

On Saturday, August 13, members of the American Sentinel University team participated in the 2011 Colorado Aids Walk in Denver, Colorado. American Sentinel raised $2,720 to help pay for vital services HIV and AIDS clients of the Colorado AIDS Project desperately need. It was a great day to serve our community and celebrate life. Check out the team photos here!

Even if it's Unintentional, it's Still Plagiarism! We Have Resources to Help!

As you probably know by now, writing papers is an important part of your academic experience at American Sentinel. Because writing is an important part of learning, most professors require students to write in APA (American Psychological Association) format. By using APA formatting, papers can be written without “stealing” idea from another author while
American Sentinel University to Participate at GIS in the Rockies

As American Sentinel continues to keep pace with all the latest Geographic Information Systems trends and technologies, we find it essential to grow our knowledge base and become more involved in the GIS community. This year, we will be attending the 24th annual GIS in the Rockies Conference, held in Denver, Colorado August 31 – September 1, 2011. If you’re local and would like to come see how GIS is being used in countless emerging technologies, or if you’ve already made plans to attend the conference, please come visit us in the exhibit hall in the Cable Center at the University of Denver in Denver, Colorado.

Live Chat: How to Prepare Yourself for Magnet Status

Do you know why the Magnet Recognition Program® matters?

If your facility is applying for Magnet status, then you can’t afford to miss this informative online chat with Dr. Catherine Garner and two Magnet CNO’s and Appraisers. This live chat, hosted by NurseTogether.com and American Sentinel University, presents a one-of-a-kind opportunity for you to ask questions and learn about the Magnet model, Forces of Magnetism, the complex application process, and most importantly, what Magnet means for you, your education and your job. Learn More!

Seven Tips to Make Your Resume Shine

When you apply for a job, you may be the most qualified person in the world, but if your resume is not well-written, you are likely to be lost in the sea of applicants. Here are seven tips to help you separate yourself from the pack. Read More 20 Powerful Action Verbs to Kick Your Resume Up a Notch!

In this great article, author Jessica Holbrook Hernandez, CEO of Great Resumes Fast, provides a list of strong action verbs that can be strategically placed throughout your resume to attract hiring managers and differentiate
Recruiters Seek Former Military to Fill Health Care Vacancies

The U.S. health care industry is expected to grow 27 percent by 2016, according to the U.S. Department of Labor. Many executives anticipate a portion of this future workforce to come from former military personnel. Find out why!

REGISTRATION

Registration is open for courses beginning in September, October, and November!

The following terms are currently open for registration. Check the academic catalog to find out what courses you can take in the next terms that will help you complete your degree.

FOLLOW US!

Facebook
LinkedIn
Twitter

Want a study buddy?

REFER A FRIEND

For required consumer disclosure information, visit www.americansentinel.edu/doe.

If you do not wish to receive future emails from American Sentinel University, please UNSUBSCRIBE.

American Sentinel University
2260 South Xanadu Way, Suite 310
Aurora, CO 80014

Privacy Policy

8/24/2011